

March News & Updates

We have a few things planned this month that you're going to enjoy. I hope you'll join us for a fun time.

We have St. Patrick's Day items along with new planters available to paint in the studio. Also hop on in to paint some Easter items. Stop in and check them out.

Also make sure you stop by the studio during business hours, which are listed below to pick up your finished pieces before they have been shipped to the Island of Lost Pottery.

Reservations can only be made by CALLING the Studio. No email or PM's through FB are accepted. Reservations also need verbal confirmation with a CCC Staff member. We are still taking Walk-Ins but reserving a table is best.

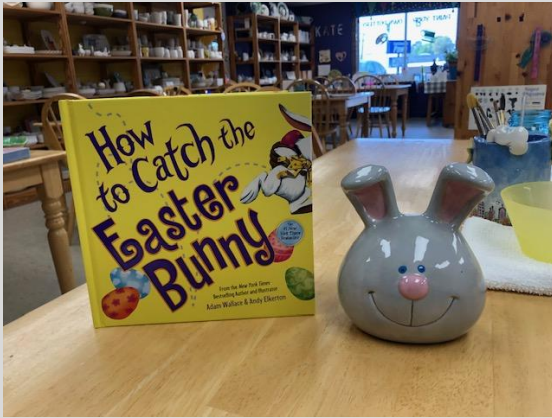

We can get extremely busy during school holidays and on Saturdays. We are highly recommending calling ahead and reserving a table during studio hours regardless of the number of painters.
